

Position: Localisation Project Manager - Games

Location: Barcelona, Spain

Contract type: Permanent

A passion for the action

Do you have a passion for the gaming industry and a strong track record in project management? Would you thrive on the challenge of balancing day-to-day priorities alongside long-term strategic goals? Do you have the skills to deliver outstanding client service and remain cool under pressure?

At Alpha, we're looking to recruit an outstanding (Senior) Localization Project Manager for the Games Division as part of this multinational team working for some of the world's best-known gaming clients.

The role

This is an opportunity to work with a world-leading localization specialist in the gaming industry in a role that demands strong client-facing skills alongside a careful attention to detail. You'll have proven experience of working within the localization or video games industries – or preferably both.

This is a hands-on role that requires strong interpersonal skills as well as the ability to manage and prioritise a varied workload. Responding to client requests and managing internal resources, you'll enjoy the diverse challenges of project management on a day-to-day basis.

This is a chance to demonstrate and develop skills across a wide range of professional competencies, including the following.

- Communication: independently managing localization projects, day-to-day communication with clients and internal and external localization teams
- Scheduling: managing localization schedules and project milestones
- Production: allocating assets to production teams and providing proactive support while removing project blockers
- Coordination: acting as the bridge between internal and external teams, games experts, language leads, engineers, QA testers, audio recording studios and clients
- Finance: managing and tracking budgets, margins, purchase orders and invoices
- Reporting: transmitting key data and escalations to the Alpha Games Program Manager

Key requirements

- 3+ years' experience in localization project management
- Knowledge of computer-aided translation (CAT) tools, ideally MemoQ, Trados Studio and WorldServer
- Experience of working with diverse, multicultural teams (internal and external/remote)
- Previous experience working with a video game publisher or specialized localization service provider
- Experience in Localization QA is a MAJOR plus
- Great project management and communication skills

- Fluency in English
- Client-facing experience and the capability to work under pressure in a dynamic working environment
- A stress-resistant personality and a positive 'can-do' attitude
- Multitasking expertise and the ability to prioritise
- A proactive problem solver who is quality and service oriented
- A team player and fast learner
- Existing working EU visa is a must

What we offer

- Spacious office in central Barcelona location
- International atmosphere
- Strong team spirit
- Casual working environment
- Large team of gaming enthusiasts
